

#ThinkLogistics. Go far.

think.
logistics

FOR A WHOLE WORLD
OF OPPORTUNITY

NEED TO KNOW

Logistics careers are about getting stuff (and people) from A to B. Filling stores with the latest must-haves when people want them, not years too late. Keeping warehouses stocked, keeping passengers happy and making airports a fun place to be.

FACTS

Big money potential
Keep your options open
Opportunity for travel
Loads of variety

MYTHS

Be forced to drive a lorry?
Need a degree?

JOB TRENDS

Average pay for logistics managers: £44,720
Average weekly pay: £860
Average hourly pay: £23

HOT OR NOT?

This sector is growing by 6.1% with over 6,100 new jobs by 2027.

ROUTES IN

GCSEs and A LEVELS
BTECs
T LEVELS
Traineeships
Apprenticeships
Degree Apprenticeships
Degrees

USEFUL SKILLS

People Roles:

Can work in a team
Persuasion and sales skills
Keeping a cool head

Practical roles:

'Fix it' attitude
Good hand/eye co-ordination

All roles:

Flexible
Willing to try to be organised and on time
Open to new things

WHAT COULD YOU DO?

An A-Z of Apprenticeships
Warehouse Manager
Project Manager
Transport Planner
HGV Driver / Mechanic
HR (People) Manager
... the list goes on.

EXAMPLES OF USEFUL WORK EXPERIENCE

Basic digital skills
Dealing with customers (over the phone, in a restaurant, on the shop floor... it's all good.)

youthemployment.org.uk/logistics-careers